

I think the FCC should not mess with the states telephone privacy acts. Since I joined I have not received many calls.